Intro: A pleasant day to all! In this vlog, we are going to explore the famous and radiant spots in Surigao City. And we are delighted to express some history of each spot to all of you, therefore, enjoy watching!

#1.) Preparation: We are now in the grocery store and enjoying buying some foods for the preparation of the starving part while travelling and wandering.

#2.) Arrival: Fortunately, it is not too challenging to flag down a vehicle in Surigao City. However, you need to ensure that you have money to avail the entire seating capacity of the vehicle, commonly known as a tricycle. If you are traveling with a group, it's advantageous as the drivers are generally more accommodating.

We are now nearing our destination and ready to document the first spot.

#LIPATA

#3.) Curbita Clan: We have now arrived at our first destination.

The exquisite and glazing water of Curbita Clan is fascinating, and there are likely beautiful cottages on this beach.

#4.) Palma Beach Resort: They say that the best beach in Lipata is the Palma Beach Resort, owing to its comfortable and spacious area. Their service is of high quality, and the sea's water is crystal-clear, with fine white sand.

LIPATA'S HISTORY BY TATAY

Q1.)What is the origin of Lipata?

Tatay: Before, Lipata was only a sitio and had no name. When "bol-anon" (people from Bohol) arrived from Bohol, they docked after riding a boat and saw an abundance of Lipata trees (blind-your-eye mangrove) along the seashore. As a result, they named this place Lipata, now known as Barangay Lipata.

Q2.)So, were Lipata trees the predominant trees here before?

Tatay: Yes.

Q3.)But are Lipata trees still present in this area?

Tatay: They are gone.

Uncle: Nothing can be seen.

Tatay: This is because the soil level has increased. That's why the Barangay Captain decided to plant a Lipata tree to signify that this place is still Lipata.

Q4.) Even just one Lipata tree?

Uncle: No, it has already been searched. But there's a place to find a seedling for a Lipata tree; I just don't know where it is.

Q5.)Are you planning to plant Lipata trees here?

Uncle: Yes, the previous Barangay Captain did.

Q6.)So, they are not actively addressing this issue now?

Uncle: No, because of modernization.

My father was a former councilor of Lipata. This part belongs to Punta Bilar, but Punta Bilar and Lipata were once united.

Tatay: That's why it was named Punta Bilar because people were always vigilant, waiting for boats and other vehicles to dock.

Q7.)In your opinion, what is the best beach in Lipata?

Tatay: Palma.

Q8.)Why do you say that Palma is the best?

Tatay: Additionally, this beach is comfortable, with amenities such as a CR, water, etc.

After interviewing them, we continued wandering to Punta Bilar.

We inquired with some residents about the way to Punta Bilar.

BELLA LA BAMBA:

One of the fascinating beaches on Punta Bilar is Bella La Bamba, covered by a galore of pebbles.

The cottages are comfortable, and the staff is hospitable. Probably, the sea's water is very seductive, and goodness, the green trees of the mountain verge on the sea are breathtaking. We must take a picture for remembrance.

305 STEPS OF PUNTA BILAR TO MABUA:

There is a hidden place for the 305 steps from Punta Bilar to Mabua. We enjoyed stepping on all the stairs.

Below the 305 steps, there is a beach resort. Along the line, it is also pretty clean in the vicinity of the beach, with a galore of beautiful pebbles and good cottages. The breathtaking blue sea is enticing. The vantage point of the clouds and the mountains is very glamorous.

TO LOOC:

Now, we're walking along the pebbles to Looc to look for another view.

In looc:

The sunset is very alluring, and as the same, there's plenty of beautiful and comfortable cottages.

There's a lavish of individuals swimming and enjoying the rhythm of the sea waves.

Tents out of the cottages were built for the relaxing area.

Unknown individuals played musical instruments at this time to express the essence of Christmas, and the audience luxuriated in the vibes, taking videos, pictures, and more.

EATING PART:

At this point, we're all famished and took a gobble, haha.

Furthermore, I'll leave you with a quote: "Life is a journey that begs to be explored, a series of destinations that reveal the beauty of the world and the depths of our own souls. Travel not only takes us to places on the map but also to the uncharted territories within ourselves."

At last, that concludes this vlog. Grateful for watching!
